The Billington and Gonzalez Duo

Robert David Billington, flute
Rene Gonzalez, guitar

The Billington and Gonzalez Classical Flute and Guitar Duo, formed in the autumn of 1988, has performed extensively in the South Florida region. The repertoire of the Billington and Gonzalez Duo ranges from transcriptions of Elizabethan music for recorder and lute to original compositions of twentieth-century music for flute and guitar. The Duo specializes in the performance of works from the Western Hemisphere.

Canadian-born flutist Robert David Billington earned his BA from Northern Michigan University, his MM from Western Michigan University, and his DMA in flute performance from the University of Miami. Dr. Billington teaches privately in the South Florida area and performs as principal and solo flutist with the Miami Bach Society Orchestra.

Guitarist Rene Gonzalez received his BM, MM, and his DMA in guitar performance from the University of Miami where he is the director of the classical guitar program. Dr. Gonzalez teaches guitar master classes and performs recitals throughout the United States and has released the CD "The Hummingbird" on the EFM label.

For more information about the Billington and Gonzalez Duo, please e-mail Dr. Billington at rdbflute@lgem.com or visit the LGEM web site at lgem.com or the RDBFLUTE web site at rdbflute.com. You may also call Dr. Billington at 305-669-1754 or Dr. Gonzalez at 305-284-2083.
